

Sean Kenny

Senior Vice President of Corporate Development
Joined SIAA in 2021

---

As Vice President of Corporate Development, Sean manages the team responsible for all company Mergers & Acquisitions. Since joining SIAA, Sean and his team have closed 14 acquisitions, comprising nearly 900 member agencies and over $2 Billion in written premium.

Sean studied mergers & acquisitions under two of the industry's titans; first in the wholesale and managing general underwriter space at Ryan Specialty Group and in the US retail brokerage space for Gallagher. Sean utilizes the invaluable knowledge and experience he gained earlier in his career into overseeing the design and execution of SIAA's inorganic growth strategy. This includes sourcing, negotiating, valuing, and structuring the company's strategic acquisitions and managing those external relationships.

Sean is a CPA and earned a master's degree in accounting from Northern Illinois University. He is a frequent speaker at industry conferences and events on the topics of M&A and perpetuation planning, and has been published in several industry publications on related subjects.

Sean and his wife, Olivia, reside in Chicago, IL with their daughter and three sons.
