

Kristin Collins
Chief Legal Officer
Joined SIAA in 2021

As Chief Legal Officer of SIAA, Kristin Collins is the senior executive responsible for all legal matters for the SIAA family of companies, including corporate governance, mergers and acquisitions, membership and strategic partner contracting, regulatory compliance, enterprise risk management, dispute resolution, labor and employment matters, and intellectual property protection.

Kristin collaborates with the senior management team to develop legal, risk, and compliance strategies that enable the organization to serve the needs of its staff, members and strategic business partners. As a dedicated leader with extensive experience advising both public and private companies and building cross-functional teams across multiple geographies, Kristin has a history of balancing risk and opportunity to deliver solution-oriented legal advice and execute innovative and tactical business initiatives.

Before joining SIAA, Kristin was General Counsel of Plymouth Rock Assurance Corporation, a $1.7 billion regional property and casualty insurance company. Prior to that, Kristin served as Vice President and Assistant General Counsel of MFS Investment Management, where she managed the board reporting process for a combined $500 billion of assets under management, provided expert advice on various SEC and regulatory matters, and supported the fixed income trading team. Kristin began her career in private practice at WilmerHale, specializing in corporate, debt finance, and bankruptcy and financial restructuring work. She also served as a law clerk to Chief Judge D. Brock Hornby of the U.S. District Court for the District of Maine.

Kristin earned her bachelor's degree from Harvard College and her juris doctor from the University of Michigan.
